

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 15. 1743.

Since our last arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersburgh, October 26.

THIS Morning arrived the Marquis de la Chetardie's Secretary, with Advice, that His Excellency is on his Way hither; but that he is first to execute certain private Commissions at the Courts of Copenhagen and Stockholm. The Emperor's Journey to Moscow will most certainly take Place, tho' the day of her setting out cannot be well fixed, till after her return out of the Country to this Capital. The Sieur de Holsteyn, Resident from the Queen of Hungary, having presented a Memorial, complaining of the Charge brought against the Marquis de Botta, without any kind of Proof, the Czarina thereupon has thought fit to order her Vice-Chancellor, and Secretary of State, to communicate to the before-mentioned Minister all the Examinations, Confessions, and other authentick Proceedings in that Affair. It is thought we shall have no Ambassador from Sweden this Year, but that General Dux will continue at this Court with the Character of Minister and Plenipotentiary, in order to negotiate an Affair of great Consequence to the Tranquillity of the North, viz. the Marriage of his Royal Swedish Highness with a Princess of Denmark; and the Renunciation of the House of Holstein to the Duchy of Gottorp, in consideration of an Equivalent.

Copenhagen, November 9. On Monday last the French Ambassador to the Russian Court, the Marquis de la Chetardie, arrived here; and had, immediately, a long Conference with our Ministers, which is said to have turned upon a new Plan for accommodating the Affairs of the North to the Satisfaction of all Parties; and he is since put out for Stockholm, from whence he will go directly to Petersburgh. His Majesty has named Baron Charles of Holstein his Plenipotentiary to the Czarina, and has given him full Powers to regulate all our Differences with that Court and Sweden; and besides his Credentials in that Character, he is provided also with a Commission to assume the Title of Ambassador Extraordinary, as soon as he has sign'd the Treaty. At present he is fully occupied in preparing for the Reception of the Princess Royal of Denmark, who is expected in a few Days.

Madrid, October 29. We received on the 21st of this Month, the disagreeable News of Don Philip's being obliged to retire out of Piedmont; which would have given the Court much more Concern, if the Letters of the Marquis de la Mina had not assured their Majesties, that his Royal Highness gave, upon that Occasion, all the Marks of Personal Courage, and Military Conduct, that could have been expected from a Person of much greater Experience. Upon the Heels of this, arrived an Express from Cadix with more ill News; viz. That the St. Antonio, a Register Ship, having 4,000,000 on board, was lately taken by two English Men of War. But, in spite of all these Misfortunes, the Court seems determined to push their Enterprises with more Vigour than ever; and with this View a grand Embarkation will be shortly made at Barcelona, of 147 Pieces of Cannon, 20,000 Fusils, 25 many Bayonets, and a proportional Quantity of Bullets, Bombs, and other Ammunition for Italy; and, at the same time, 16 Battalions and 12 Squadrons, now in Catalonia, are to march into Savoy, to reinforce the Army of the Infant Don Philip; and are to be replaced in that Principality by the Troops that are at present in the Kingdoms of Valencia, Arragon, and Old Castile.

Bologna, October 31. Prince Lobkowitz has established his Head-Quarters at Rimini, and seems determin'd to push the Spaniards, who are retrenching themselves as strongly as possible at Pano, where they pretend they will wait for the Austrians, because it is a Country where Horse cannot easily act; and as Prince Lobkowitz has 3000 Cavalry, and the Spaniards but 1400, the latter are in Hopes of depriving him of the Advantage he must otherwise have over them. But their Politicks are like to fail them in this Particular; since the King of Sardinia is actually marching a Body of Foot to the Assistance of Prince Lobkowitz; and, it is not doubted, that as soon as the War is over on this Side, the Prince will join all his Forces with those of his Sardinian Majesty, in order to drive the Enemy out of Savoy.

Hanover, November 12. The Princess Louisa, who is now Princess Royal of Denmark, arrived here on the 10th. The next Day, being his Majesty's Birth-day, he received the Compliments of the Court on that Occasion in the Morning, and at Six in the Evening of the same Day, the Marriage of her Royal Highness was celebrated in the Chapel of the Court. Her Royal Highness was led by her Brother, the Duke of Cumberland, and, as soon as they were placed on Stoo's set for them before the Altar, his Majesty came, and took his Seat on a Throne, under a Canopy, having the Baron de Solenthal, Ambassador of the King of Denmark, on the one Hand, and Lord Carteret on the other. Baron de Friberg read the Procuration to the Duke of Cumberland, after which M. Konigsm, Chaplain of the Court, solemnized the Marriage with the usual Ceremony. Te Deum was afterwards performed, attended by a Concert of Trumpets, Kettle-drums, and other Instruments of Musick, and a triple Discharge of all the Artillery on our Ramparts. At the Return of the Princess of Denmark to the Castle, the King gave her his Blessing, and all the Lords and Ladies of the Court were permitted to pay their Compliments to her in her Bed-Chamber, where her Toilette was set out with all the fine Cloaths and Jewels, given her by his Majesty upon this Occasion. Yesterday his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and his Sisters, made a Tour to Herenhausen, and in the Evening there was an Opera, and a Masquerade at the Castle, with a Ball, which lasted till Morning.

As several scandalous Aspersions have been lately raised by malevolent Persons, who aim at nothing but Confusion, and who could not have been present with the Army, the following Queries are put to the Gentlemen who were there.

WHETHER, notwithstanding the Prudence of our brave B— G—, at the Arrival of H— M—, he did not find the Army in several Distresses, and but very little Union among the General Officers of the Confederate Army?

Whether H— M—'s Presence did not contribute, as much as the Valour of our Countrymen, to their making their Way thro' all these Difficulties?

Whether at the Battle of Dettingen H— M—'s Disposition of the Right Wing, where he commanded in Person, and was exposed the whole Day, was not judg'd the best of any; and whether he gave not his Orders with a Calmness and Resolution that all admired?

Whether, after the Battle, besides Rewards to Private Men who distinguish'd themselves, the Preferments went not generally, in the Regiments?

Whether H— M— did not show his Paternal Care of the British wounded, and give immediately a Thousand Pounds for enlarging the Hospital?

If, afterwards, when Jealousies arose among the Corps, those are not rather to be blamed, who aggravated Mistakes in their Reports, than a Commander who endeavours a Reformation, and good Discipline?

Whether the French have not been effectually reminded of the British Valour, and obliged to abandon Germany; and whether they were not afterwards driven from Italy, by the Effects of the Treaty H— M— concluded at Worms?

Whether we have not Reason to be thankful for the Successes of this Campaign, and applaud H— M— for the Care and infinite Pains he has taken, rather than grumble at Mistakes which may be rectified?

Whether every impartial Person in the Nation and Army is not convinced, that H— M— has the Honour, Liberty, and Trade of this Nation at Heart, as much as any Englishman whatever?

I appeal to every honest Englishman, if these Falsties are not fomented by French Emisaries, as their only Resource in their low Estate of Affairs; which Measures they formerly took to obtain a Peace, after the many glorious Successes of the Duke of Marlborough; under whom I shall always think it an Honour to have serv'd.

We are well assured that young Gentlemen and Ladies, from Seven Years of Age and upwards, who never wrote before, are taught a plain legible Hand in one Month, at an Hour per Day; or in three Days, attending the whole Day. And others (of no extraordinary Genius) from the Age of Ten to Fifty, who wrote very indifferently, have had their Hands considerably improv'd in one Week, at an Hour per Day, at Home or Abroad, by Mr. Granger, at the Hand and Pen opposite Southamp-ton-street to the Strand.

Last Sunday was Married at Alhallows Church, Mr. Marham, a great Linen Draper in the Borough of South-wark, to Miss Molly Hughes, Sister to Mr. Hughes, an eminent Druggist in Gracechurch-street.

Hazard, occasions a great Resort of People to purchase Tickets, Shares, and Chances, at his Office under the Royal Exchange, and at his other Office fronting Stationers Hall, near Ludgate, on account of his being so fortunate. Large Quantities of Tickets are daily register'd there, as it is expected the Accounts must be the most correct, by the Numbers being en-ter'd in two different Numerical and Register Books, and at two separate Offices.

Whereas many Persons are desirous of becoming Ad-venturers in the present State-Lottery, to whom it may not be so convenient to purchase whole Tickets, or Chances of whole Tickets, as to be only concerned in the Chances for Prizes. This is to acquaint the Publick, that Francis Wilson, at the State Lottery-Office, Cha-ring-Cross, directly behind the King on Horseback, will dispose of Chances for the whole Drawing at 6 l. 10 s. cheaper than the Market-Price of Tickets; by which Method, the Purchaser will be equally entitled to the Chances of the Prizes, as if possessor of the whole Tick-ets. The said Francis Wilson will also dispose of the Shares at the following Prices; viz.

Great Numbers are induced to come to their Office, it being situated free from the Noise and Interruption of the Publick Streets, in Sta-tioners Alley, near Ludgate Street; where also they have transacted their Business with uncommon Success for several Years past, having paid several Thousand Pounds among their Shares as soon as drawn; which Method will be continued in the present Lottery.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease,

from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and disastrous Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are so roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd Clares, with all their attendant

Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics

on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness to happen

on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Ulcer, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Swellings, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cur-

red than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method

whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without dis-pairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as to be despised it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal

Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Discomfort nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure

be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, not by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all

Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to be hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining

Relics of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, in its main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all Rheumatisms, terrefactions, and even terref-ruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandular Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble Anti-SYPHILICON is but

Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary accuracy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value, and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RANNEY's

Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's

Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who are ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
